

Dr. D. B. Kulkarni, working as Asst Prof. in Computer Science & Engineering department and also as I/C head Information Technology department in this institute, has been awarded a research project on “Development of Problem Solving Environment (PSE) for Scalable High Performance Computing” by Naval Research Board of Defence Research & Development Organization (DRDO), New Delhi. The project duration is of 2 years and the research funding sanctioned is approximately 50 Lakhs. Mr. N L Gavankar from CSE dept will work as co-principal investigator for the project.